Drew Turiano Congress 2014

About Me

I have a Master's degree from Fordham University in Political Science.

Two great Americans that I consider to be my political icons are Pat Buchanan and Samuel Francis. I always admired them for being courageous in standing for their beliefs when it would have been easier for them to fold under the intense politically correct and multicultural pressures from the left, the RINOs and Neocons.

In 2006, I volunteered for Senator Conrad Burns in his U.S. Senate reelection campaign against Jon Tester.

In 2008, I became Communications Director for former Montana House Majority Leader Mike Lange in Mike Lange's campaign for the U.S. Senate.

In 2012, I ran for Montana Secretary of State.

I'm 39 years old and I am a real estate investor who's been residing in the beautiful city of Helena for about a decade.

I believe America is on the verge of despair and destruction. If we don't turn things around soon in this country, I fear America may be lost forever.

I will be the voice to all the voiceless babies, who savagely get aborted by the millions each year.

I will be an advocate to those Americans who desperately want a moratorium on all immigration because they know about the kind of damage our civilization is undertaking through multiculturalism.

And finally, I will be a strong supporter of nullification (states striking down unconstitutional federal laws like ObamaCare and Roe v. Wade) because I know that states must be strong again in order for them to be a bulwark against the Leviathan that is the federal government.

Please go to the issues section of this website to learn a lot more about where I stand on many other important issues that face our country like gay marriage, creationism, America's debt and deficit, the Patriot Act, NDAA, guns etc.

If you agree with me on the issues and you would like to make a generous donation to my campaign by credit card, please go to the contribution section of this website and give whatever amount you think is proper.

If you would like to make a donation to my campaign by check only, please make out the check to: Drew Turiano For Congress P.O. Box 6996 Helena, Montana 59604 - 6996

Also, if you are making a donation by check only, please include your email address, home phone number, occupation and employer.

Under the law, contributors to my campaign can only donate a total of $2,600 up to the Republican primary on June 3, 2014. If I win the primary, then contributors to my campaign are only allowed to donate again a total of $2,600 more up to the general election in November of 2014. Therefore, contributors are allowed to donate no more than $5,200 in total to my campaign. A couple may contribute up to $5,200 for the primary and up to $5,200 for the general election on a joint bank account check.

Contributions to my campaign are not tax deductible for federal income tax purposes. Contributions from corporations, foreign nationals without permanent residence, federal government contractors and labor unions are prohibited.

My campaign will only go as far as your generous donations and support will take it.

If you truly want a Christian Tea Party Conservative Republican like me in the U.S. Congress, please tell all your friends and family about my campaign.

We may change America yet.

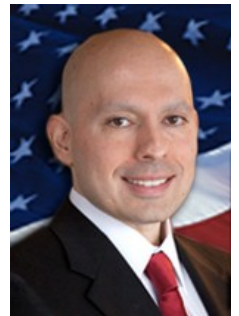

I will begin this journey to Congress virtually alone except for family, some allies and hopefully our lord and savior Jesus Christ.

I need to do my part for our country no matter what misery our adversaries try to bring against me. It is something I must do.

To see America's future be so miserable and bleak, what other choice do I have but try to change our destiny for not only us Conservatives and our posterity but for virtually all Americans along with their posterity?

We shall soon see if one man can make a difference.

God bless you and may God bless Montana and America!
